ARIZONA NOT SO WARM FOR SEC'Y OF WAR

Stories Of Strong Taft Sentiment From Interior Intended Solely To Help Maricopa Fight.

TAFT HARMONY ALL UNDER CAPITOL DOME

Statement That Roosevelt Is Friend Of Arizona No Believed By People.

(Special Correspondence.)
PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 7, 1908.—Just at the present time there is a great deal of political discussion going on here regarding what may or not be the final results after the conventions and elections have been held. Political agreement is not the predominant feature of the discussion one hears among the many politicians who reside in the capital city. The only place where there seems to be perfect agreement is under the capital dome, including also all those throughout the territory who are holding a commission from either the territorial or national administration. This brotherly agreement is that the Republican delegation should be instructed for Secretary Taft for president and that the individual delegates should, in addition to their political credentials from Arizona, also carry a commission either from Governor Kibbey or Presidential Roosevelt. Whenever there is a federal official mentioned for a delegateship there is applause from both the capital dome which is re-echoed in the Gazette, the administration official office in Phoenix and about the only one in the territory.

The recent blast from the Hon. Bob Morrison, of Prescott, when he was here attending the supreme court session, caused the crowd of federal officials to sit up and take notice. Morrison did not mince words in speaking his opinion about those who were working to put a Republican in the base of base ingratitude towards Senator Foraker, who has stood the friend of Arizona against President Roosevelt and the entire national administration during the joint-school fight. This blast appeared in the shape of an interview in the Arizona Republican and while Mr. Morrison may have been misquoted as to the use of the word "cur," his language was sufficiently strenuous to arouse to action all those who feel it to be their duty to stand by Roosevelt and his pet candidate, regardless of their attitude towards Arizona either now, in the past or in the future. Governor Kibbey attempted to hold the sentiment which predominated in the Morrison interview by giving his statement to the press concerning "Arizona at Chicago" in which he made the remarkable statement that President Roosevelt was the friend of Arizona and that he had been commissioned to do all the thinking for the Republican party in the territory, in addition to naming all who are to have a place at the political pie counter in this city and throughout the territory.

Ex-Mayor J. C. Adams is known is not following the lead of the administration forces; Ex-Governor N. O. Murphy is here and it can be said at least that he will not be found among those who believe that Arizona should have no opinion except those handed down from Washington through the federal officials of the territory. It now looks like the campaign this year, as far as the initial Republican convention is concerned, will be lined up much as it was last year when the Monk-Creighton crowd administered such a general drubbing to the administration or Albers faction. In case that this should be the lineup, there are many in Phoenix, not interested in the Republican scrap, who would be willing to wager liberal margins that the administration crowd would go down for the count.

Making Wild Claims.
One noticeable feature of the administration campaign is the disposition to claim everything in sight and concede nothing to the opposition. United States Attorney J. L. B. Alexander returned here this morning from Cleveland, says that Cochise county will send a delegation to the Republican territorial convention instructed to vote for a Taft instructed delegation. He claims that he was assured of this by men who may be depended upon to deliver the goods. This story does not agree with other stories coming from Cochise and other southern counties.

SIMS ELY IN TUCSON WORKS FOR A TAFT-DELEGATION

(Special to Review.)
TUCSON, Ariz., Feb. 7.—Sims Ely, secretary to Governor Kibbey, spent the day here talking to local Republicans in the interest of an instructed delegation from this county for Taft. He spent most of the time with Billy Cooper, late candidate for congress on the Republican ticket. Before leaving Tucson tonight for Phoenix Ely expressed the opinion that this county will be for Taft.

Ely authorized the statement that Governor Kibbey will not be a candidate for delegate to congress, but intends to serve out his term as governor and retire from official life.

ties. Whenever a federal official arrives in Phoenix from some county where he has been, they all tell the same story about how the people are aroused for Taft. Of course all these stories are not believed, even by those who tell them, but are spread here in Phoenix, according to the administration, with the sole purpose of influencing Maricopa county where the big battle is to be fought.

Among the Democrats.
The Democrats in Maricopa county are enjoying the republican scrap already and are anticipating much more fun as the time for the real conflict approaches. So far as the Democrats of Maricopa county are concerned they are practically all of one mind in looking to William Jennings Bryan as the strongest man that could be named as the Democratic presidential candidate. On this proposition it is expected that the Democrats of the entire territory will agree, and that so far as the presidential campaign is concerned harmony will be complete.

ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR ROYAL FUNERAL

Impressive Ceremonies Held in Lisbon Today.

LISBON, Feb. 7.—The simple but impressive funeral services tomorrow will be the final act in the bloody drama of Saturday. All arrangements for the solemn march through the city and the ceremonies at the church of San Vincente, have been completed. Although it is the custom in Portugal for the new sovereign to walk behind the coffin of the dead monarch, as King Carlos did when his father was buried; it is announced today that neither the queen nor the king will be able to endure the trying ordeal. Additional troops were brought to Lisbon today to accompany the cortege and line the route of March.

The last of the special foreign missions to attend the funeral arrived in Lisbon tonight and hundreds of floral tributes have been received at the palace, practically every government being represented. Charles Page Bryan, American minister, has sent two wreaths, one to the king with expressions of most profound sorrow of Roosevelt and the American people, and the other to Queen Amelia, conveying the heartfelt regrets of the American nation. The bodies of the king and crown prince were viewed by members of the diplomatic corps this afternoon in the royal chapel.

ROOSEVELT EXCEEDS HIS AUTHORITY IN NAMING PUBLIC PRINTER; THE TREASURY REFUSES HIS BONDS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—William S. Rossiter, appointed acting public printer in the place of Stillings, went to the treasury department today to have his bond approved. The department refused to consider the matter on the ground that the president had exceeded his authority in appointing Rossiter; that under the law, the assistant public printer succeeds to the vacancy.

Under this informal ruling Rossiter later in the day stepped aside and his place was taken by Captain Bryan, the assistant, who will administer the printing office for the time being. Rossiter, however, does not relinquish the work of inquiry laid out by the president. His position becomes that of the president's personal representative, and he is proceeding with the investigation.

With the exception of four Bulgarian laborers, all of the victims were natives of this place, descendants of Highland Scotchmen who settled in Cape Breton. All were well known. The scenes when the bodies were brought out were most distressing.

Moore.

HITCHCOCK WILL MANAGE TAFT BUREAU

First Assistant Postmaster General Resigns To Accept Direction Of Secretary's Presidential Interests.

TAFT WORN OUT BY DEPARTMENT WORK

Hitchcock Will Have Full Control Except In Ohio, Where Voris Has Charge.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Announcement was made today of the approaching retirement of Frank H. Hitchcock, first assistant postmaster general. Hitchcock will assume the management of the active campaign of Taft. The actual date of his retirement has not been determined definitely, but it will probably be about February 15. Hitchcock will be succeeded by Dr. Charles P. Grandfield, who for two years has been chief of the bureau over which Hitchcock presided. Grandfield has been actively identified with the postal service for about twenty years.

Several weeks ago Hitchcock was requested by Taft to undertake the management of his campaign. The secretary desires his services not only because he is widely known throughout the country and has had experience in valuable campaign work, but because he felt the necessity of having a man in charge of the infinite variety of details to whom he could refer questions arising constantly and to which he was unable to devote the time they seemed to demand.

It is no secret that Taft, in order to dispose of the great amount of work incident to the direction of his department, has been obliged for several weeks to practically exclude himself from visitors. Part of the time the work was under exceedingly trying conditions, and he has been under a severe mental strain for fourteen to sixteen hours a day. Roosevelt joined with Taft in requesting Hitchcock to undertake the campaign work.

It is not known what plans Hitchcock may have for his new duties. It is not known even whether he will establish headquarters in this city, but it is assumed he will devote all his time to the campaign of Taft in all parts of the country, except possibly Ohio which is being looked after by Arthur M. Voris.

chain, went into the hands of a receiver for liquidation, January 26. Charles A. Hanna, a national bank examiner, was assigned as receiver by W. B. Ridgely, controller of currency. With its deposits reduced to a little more than a year from approximately $20,000,000 to about $3,000,000, and its surplus diminished in the same time from $2,000,000 to less than $500,000, the bank has been in a desperate financial fight for existence ever since the financial storm swept through Wall Street in October. The surprising statement was made that the bank lost $1,000,000 in deposits during the panic of October.
